

Implementing the massive haemorrhage pathway: one-year survey of 15 New Zealand hospitals*

Formal activation protocol

54%

have a formal activation protocol

Lower volume sites have developed other guidelines including:

- Formal calling structures for senior clinicians to attend when activated
- Getting the best use out of available blood products

33%

working towards implementation

13%

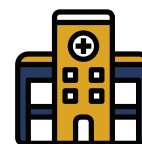

in final stage of implementation

Massive transfusion protocol

100%

All sites have protocol in place

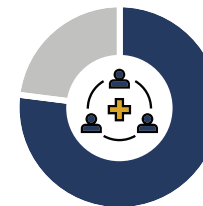

100%

use simulation at least annually

77%

use multi-disciplinary committee to review all activations

1 in 3

reviewed and amended local protocols based on national guidance

Click here for more information

* Results reflect the 15 out of 23 hospitals who completed the one-year survey (65% response rate).